

Acts 9

Read the chapters and write a brief summary.

Acts gives details of Saul going from persecutor to persecuted as he was convicted and converted. His case is worthy of study as it not only answers many questions about conversion, but also illustrates even the most ardent enemy of the Lord can change.

Question and Discussion

1. Give bullet points on what Saul experience and was told on the road to Damascus (9:1-9).
2. Why was Ananias reluctant to speak to Saul and how was this overcome (9:10-18)?
3. What proved Saul's change of heart (9:19-25)?
4. Describe the process of Saul becoming a member of the church in Jerusalem and be ready to discuss the process of joining a church today (9:26-28).
5. Who was Dorcas, what was special about her, and what lesson can we learn from her account (9:36-43)?
