1 Corinthians Chapter 6

1.	Why should brethren not go to court before unbelievers (6:1-4)?
2.	How should a dispute between brethren be handled (6:5)?
3.	What attitude should brethren have when it comes to mistreatment by brethren (6:7, 8)?
4.	Are there limitations on taking one another to court, that is, are the cases where it is lawful? If so, give an example.
5.	To what is Paul referring when he says "all things are lawful for me" (6:12)? Are there limitations on what is lawful?
6.	What is the Lord's command regarding sexual immorality and why (6:16-19)?
7.	What is the Lord's desire for use of the body (6:20)?
